

DOCTOR CHOICE

What does the PPACA say about choosing a Primary Care Physician?

The PPACA requires that health insurance plan customers be allowed to designate any available participating primary care physician (PCP) or pediatrician as their health care professional. Health plans cannot require a referral for OB-GYN care and women can designate their specialist as their PCP.