

2013 FINAL PREP FOR EXCHANGES

2013 focused on final preparations for the new state health insurance exchanges which had to be ready in time for a fall 2013 open enrollment. The year's major provisions were:

- Flexible Spending Account limits were put in place for the amount an individual could contribute.
- Expanded authority to bundle payments for health care professionals to further collaborate thus improving coordination and quality of care.
- Medicare Part A tax on wages and investment income for those with higher incomes to help fund Medicare Part A.

2013 PROVISION OUTLINE:

- Flexible spending account limits
- Expanded authority to bundle payments
- Increased Medicare Part A tax on wages and investment income
